CONCLUDING REMARKS

MR. KING: We owe much to many in connection with this conference. We owe a debt of gratitude to our founder, Mr. Picker. I would like to thank our moderators and our speakers, who were excellent. I would like to thank the Canadian Consulate, Mr. Tennant and Mr. Costaris for everything that they have done for this conference. I would like to thank Mr. Dorchak, Ms. Herrick and Ms. Banks, our conference coordinator. I would like to recognize the contributions of Mr. Knight and Mr. Wright, who did a wonderful job with the sound effects for this conference. I would like to thank Mr. Carmody who is our Canadian director, and also the dean of the Western Ontario Law School, who was here for much of this conference. I want to pay particular tribute, to Mr. Ujcz. There have been a lot of ups and downs in coordinating conference like this, which really starts Thursday night with the advisory board meeting and goes through Sunday at this time. Mr. Ujcz has been a source of support to me at all times. I want to take this occasion to present Mr. Ujcz with an autographed version of my book, which is, "The Two Worlds of Albert Spear, Reflections of a Nuremberg Prosecutor." Finally, I would like to thank you all very much for attending.

I think I am at liberty to declare this conference adjourned.
